MIAMI

Miami, officially the City of Miami, is the cultural, economic, media, entertainment, international trade and financial center of South Florida. Miami is the center of Miami-Dade County, the most populist county in Florida. The Miami metropolitan area has a population of 6.1 million people making it the seventh largest metropolitan area in the United States.

And for people into the Arts and Nightlife, world famous South Beach is just a blink away.

The colorful South Beach area

Miami is known for its beaches along Miami Beach, great boating and fishing. Our venue and hotel overlook the beautiful Miami River.

COMPETITION VENUE

The Ashe Auditorium (400 SE 2nd Ave. 33131 Miami, FL), features tiered seating for 444 guests with fold-away writing arms, raised stage area, teleconferencing/downlink capabilities, multimedia sound technologies, and stage lighting. The facility is accessible directly from the competition hotel, the Hyatt Regency, to provide a convenience for athletes and officials staying at the hotel. Designed with perfect site lines, every seat will provide a perfect viewing experience for all attending spectators.

The iconic Ashe Theater

COMPETITION HOTEL

Hyatt Regency Miami (400 SE 2nd Ave, Miami, FL 33131,) the official competition hotel and connected to the Ashe Theater, sits next to the heart of Brickell, one of the trendiest neighborhoods in Miami. With its iconic white towers overlooking the Miami River, the hotel puts you steps from the Miami Riverwalk and less than two miles from the Port of Miami. Walk to the Metro-Mover station next door and ride to destinations like Coral Gables or the Wynwood Arts District. Shop the Brickell City Centre, less than a mile away, visit Little Havana for authentic Latin flavors, or explore the Phillip and Patricia Frost Museum of Science
